“

There is no-one about to ask when I need to change the height of the manually adjustable workstation in the 24hr Computer Suite.

We swapped tables around so there is an electric workstation in there now; it can be adjusted at the touch of a button. (The manual one is now in the Library where there will always be a member of staff to help you.)

“

It's not always easy to find the contact details for Student Support or someone to help us in our School.

The information is now readily available in HudHelp.
