The Tool Shed provided a list of tools you can use in teaching and learning with tips on good practice, case studies and links to pedagogic papers and resources.

The Show Garden is a showcase of current/past teaching and learning projects and staff achievements. It is an area to show-off all our innovative teaching and learning.

Speakers’ corner is for listing of pedagogic publications, academic conferences and good practice on writing pedagogic papers, as well as funding opportunities and links to our experts database.

The Workshop is the training area so links to the Learning Bytes sessions, Staff Development Teaching and Learning sessions, how-to guides and screencast guides.

The Information point is where you can find help – who to contact and what help is offered.

The Playground is the social area for social networking, the ipark discussion board, trying things out, and the ipark blog.

http://ipark.hud.ac.uk